II. Catalog Description

Prerequisite: Acrylic and Oil Painting II ARTS-211
This course is a continuation of Acrylic and Oil Painting II. The development of individual style, originality of expression, and portfolio preparation will be the focus, along with intermediate to advanced application of painting techniques and contemporary movements in painting. The figure model will be a painting subject for several sessions. Students may choose oil or acrylic as their dominant medium. Students will purchase most of their own art supplies.

III. Statement of Course Need

This course fulfills an Advanced Studio Elective requirement in the A.F.A. Visual Arts Degree. This course parallels third semester painting courses at four year schools such as Rutgers University and School of Visual Arts. It is especially designed for the student preparing a portfolio for transfer to a four-year institution with an expected major in Visual Art, Art Education or related fields. It is also a course of interest to life long learning students.
IV. Place of course in College Curriculum

A. Free Elective
   The course meets a requirement in the following program:
   A.F.A. Visual Arts – Advance Studio Art Elective

B. Course Transferability: Based on the colleges that reviewed this course at www.njtransfer.org this course will transfer as a course in painting or as a type of elective at most institutions.
