II. Catalog Description

Prerequisite: ARTS-246 Visual Design I

This course facilitates an understanding of the effects produced by fonts and typographic techniques used in contemporary visual design. Using a combination of traditional and digital media, students will learn a historical overview of typography and explore the formal qualities of characters and typefaces through a range of theoretical and applied projects. The creative problem-solving process is used to develop skills in typesetting, typographic layout, the expressive use of type and conceptual thinking. Students will purchase some art supplies.
III. Statement of Course Need

A. Typography is an essential aspect of the visual design field. This course develops the technical and compositional skills required for any visual design professional. Typography is a requirement for any four-year visual design degree program.

B. This course has a lab component because it is a studio art course and requires students to use special facilities such as a computer lab, studio areas, and to use artistic materials under the guidance of the instructor or lab technician.

C. This course generally transfers as a required studio art course in visual design and visual communications program requirements.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

A. Free Elective

B. This course serves as a core program requirement in the A.F.A. Visual Communications degree.

C. This course serves as an advanced studio elective in the A.F.A. Visual Art degree.

D. To see course transferability: a) for New Jersey schools, go to the NJ Transfer website, www.njtransfer.org; b) for all other colleges and universities, go to the individual websites.
