II. Catalog Description

Prerequisite: Student must be enrolled in his or her last Honors College academic year before graduation. This course is intended to guide sophomore Honors College students from all disciplines who are completing a business capstone project through the stages of conducting a semester-long research project. Activities / topics include planning, research and documentation, ethics, abstracts, and oral presentations. Project topics may include relevant research or real-world projects within business, accounting, finance, marketing, or other business discipline. Because the course will enroll students from different disciplines, students will also become acquainted with research topics, ways of framing arguments, and making points outside their fields of study, which will help them develop a more interdisciplinary perspective. Class will include research training, developing a timeline, as well as independent study and research.

III. Statement of Course Need

A. Research on the value of intensive undergraduate research experiences abounds and requiring enrollment in this research capstone will provide RVCC Honors College students with: a strong student-faculty collaboration and scholarship; an original research to the discipline; an understanding of intensive research in preparation for classes in the major or for more intensive graduate school research; and a high profile project that will aid in transfer applications. Class will consist of five major components: library instruction, research and guidance with faculty member, group discussions on topics and progress, the final written (or artistic) project, and a formal presentation.

B. This course has no lab component.

C. This course is not designed for transfer, yet dependent on transfer institution may transfer as a Business program elective.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

A. Free Elective (This applies automatically to all college level credit courses in the College.)
B. This course does not serve as a General Education course.
C. This course meets a program requirement for the Honors College
D. To see course transferability: a) for New Jersey schools, go to the NJ Transfer website, www.njtransfer.org; b) for all other colleges and universities, go to the individual websites.
V. Outline of Course Content

Content Class will consist of the following major components:

1. Information literacy instruction to support research in Business
2. Advanced Business topic exploration
3. Literature research utilizing discipline-specific information sources, databases, interlibrary loan, etc.
