II. Catalog Description

Prerequisites: Student must be enrolled in his or her last Honors College academic year before graduation.

This course is intended to guide sophomore Honors College students from all disciplines through the stages of conducting a semester-long research project, and/or developing an artistic pursuit. Topics include planning, research and documentation, prose style and editing, document design, ethics, abstracts, and oral presentations. Because the course will enroll from different disciplines, students will also become acquainted with research topics, ways of framing arguments, and making points outside their fields of study, which will help them develop a more interdisciplinary perspective. Class will include research training, developing a timeline, as well as independent study and research.

III. Statement of Course Need

- A. Research on the value of intensive undergraduate research experiences abounds, and requiring enrollment in this research capstone will provide RVCC Honors College students with: a strong student-faculty collaboration and scholarship; an original research to the discipline; an understanding of intensive research in preparation for classes in the major or for more intensive graduate school research; and a high profile project that will aid in transfer applications.

Class will consist of five major components: library instruction, research and guidance with faculty member, group discussions on topics and progress, the final written (or artistic) project, and a formal presentation.

- B. This course has no lab component.
- C. This course is not designed for transfer, yet dependent on transfer institution may transfer as a Dance program elective.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

- A. Free Elective
- B. This course does not meet a General Education requirement.
- C. This course meets a program requirement for the Honors College.
- D. To see course transferability: a) for New Jersey schools, go to the NJ Transfer website, www.njtransfer.org; b) for all other colleges and universities, go to the individual websites.

V. Outline of Course Content

Class will consist of the following major components:

1. Information literacy instruction to support research in dance.
2. Advanced topic exploration in the field of dance as experienced through an artist.
3. Literature research utilizing databases, interlibrary loan, etc. as it applies to dance; art-making and the artist.
4. Background research (including attending a lecture/concert of a dance artist) and discussion of the capstone topic with capstone dance faculty advisor to create a timeline of completion.
5. Develop methods to understand and analyze the dance research topic
6. Application of dance research topic and results to relevant situations
7. Research and guidance with capstone dance faculty advisor that promotes the development of an artistic pursuit via weekly consultations to discuss results, assess progress and adjust timeline as needed.

8. The final dance capstone project, which will have a written and movement component.
9. A formal capstone presentation (Capstone Day) of the Capstone Student's work with references to the correlating written research within the venue of an "Artist's Talk"

VI. General Education and Course Learning Outcomes

A. General Education Learning Outcomes:
