II. Catalog Description

Prerequisites: Student must be enrolled in his or her last Honors College academic year before graduation

This course is intended to guide sophomore Honors College students from all disciplines through the stages of conducting a semester-long research project and/or developing an artistic pursuit in the field of Dance. Topics may include choreographing, dance history, rehearsing, performance, research and documentation, and oral presentations. Students will also become acquainted with research topics, ways of framing arguments, and making points outside their fields of study, which will help them develop a more interdisciplinary perspective. Class will include research training, developing a timeline, as well as independent study and research. Students will be required to complete a formal paper or project detailing the research, including the purpose, methods, results and conclusions. Additional culminating experiences, as directed by the instructor may include a performance, lecture/demonstration or oral presentation.

III. Statement of Course Need

A. Research on the value of intensive undergraduate research experiences abounds, and requiring enrollment in this research capstone will provide RVCC Honors College students with: a strong student-faculty collaboration and scholarship; an original research to the discipline; an understanding of intensive research in preparation for classes in the major or for more intensive graduate school research; and a high profile project that will aid in transfer applications.

Class will consist of five major components: library instruction, research and guidance with faculty member, group discussions on topics and progress, the final written (or artistic) project, and a formal presentation.

B. This course has no lab component.

C. Please describe the transferability of this course.
   1. This course does not meet a General Education requirement.
   2. This course generally transfers as a dance program elective.
   3. This course meets a program requirement for the Honors College.
   4. This course is not designed for transfer, yet dependent on transfer institution may transfer as a Dance program elective.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

A. Free Elective
B. This course meets a program requirement for the Honors College.
C. To see course transferability: a) for New Jersey schools, go to the NJ Transfer website, www.njtransfer.org; b) for all other colleges and universities, go to the individual websites.

V. Outline of Course Content
