II. Catalog Description

Prerequisite: ENGL 111 English Composition I. A Workshop course designed to encourage and develop a student’s creative talents principally in poetry and the short story. Students will analyze and critique their peers’ manuscripts as well as examples of published work.

III. Statement of Course Need

A. Creative Writing satisfies the need of a growing population of students who wish to pursue imaginative writing and perfect the crafts of poetry and fiction-writing. The course will offer interested students the opportunity to explore the use of voice in their own texts and prepare them to employ the terminology of that craft. Research reveals that many four-year institutions in New Jersey have equivalent courses to English 248, ensuring successful transferability for students. Overall, for the major and non-major alike, Creative Writing exposes students to the kinds of discussions and assignments they will encounter in writing workshops, both at RVCC and other institutions.

B. This course does not have a Lab component

C. This course generally transfers as a free elective.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

A. Free Elective
B. This course does not serve as a General Education course.
C. This course meets the Category D requirement in the English AA degree.
D. To see course transferability: a) for New Jersey schools, go to the NJ Transfer website, www.njtransfer.org; b) for all other colleges and universities, go to the individual websites.
