II. Catalog Description

Prerequisite: Placement Test results within the designated range for this course or successful completion of ESLS-053. This is the last in a five-part series of ESL courses designed to prepare students for listening and speaking at the college level. This is an advanced-level course in academic English speaking and listening skills for students whose first language is not English, which will assist them in gaining more accuracy in their speaking and listening. Students will learn advanced academic language skills, such as how to challenge an argument and respond to complex or controversial questions. Credit for this course does not apply to credit hours earned, grade point average, or graduation requirements.

III. Statement of Course Need

- A. Demographic data collected from ESL placement interviews indicate that the majority of ESL students plan to continue in a university environment upon completion of ESL training and need academic aural/oral skills in order to be prepared to participate successfully in RVCC classes.
- B. This course generally does not transfer.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

- A. Academic English Speaking & Listening V is the fifth and final of a five-level academic sequence in ESL. Students who place into Academic English Speaking & Listening V may also qualify for an Academic English Reading and Writing course and an Academic English Grammar course (levels determined by placement test results).
- B. English as a Second Language courses are necessary for the entry into/completion of any college-level degree program.
