II. Catalog Description

This course has no prerequisite. Guitar Class I teaches the basic skills of guitar playing including music theory, technique exercises, chord forms and rhythms. Level 1 reading etudes and songs will be assigned for classroom performance. This class is designed for students with little or no previous guitar background. Music majors whose primary instrument is guitar should enroll in Applied Music/private lessons. Students must provide their own guitars (acoustic or electric with amplifiers).
III. Statement of Course Need
   A. Guitar Class I provides the basic skills needed for students to proceed with the serious study of the guitar. Guitar class courses are useful for music majors, for classroom use by education and early childhood majors and in the health area for uses in Music Therapy and rehabilitation. This class is also of interest to people in the community, offering a multi-dimensional approach (encompassing technique, theory, reading and performance) to learning music and the guitar.
